LAW DAY DINNER 2011

Celebrating 250 Years of History and Focusing on the Future

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 1, 2011
5:30PM RECEPTION, 7:00PM DINNER
SEAPORT WORLD TRADE CENTER

KEYNOTE SPEAKER
DEAN MARTHA MINOW
HARVARD LAW SCHOOL

"When I was at Harvard Law School I had a teacher who changed my life — Martha Minow"

President Barack Obama

The Boston Bar Association is proud to welcome Dean Martha Minow of Harvard Law School as keynote speaker. An expert in human rights, Dean Minow is also a prolific author whose latest work, In Brown's Wake, examines the impact of the landmark Supreme Court decision Brown v. Board of Education on issues beyond race, such as social science and the international community. Dean Minow is also an innovative scholar who is dedicated to studying new ideas about meeting the needs of a changing profession. She chaired Harvard Law School's curriculum reform committee, and has spoken extensively about the future of legal education.

Dean Minow currently serves as Vice Chair of the board of the Legal Services Corporation, the government-sponsored organization that provides civil legal assistance to low-income Americans – a group she was appointed to in 2009 by her former student President Barack Obama.

Join us as we celebrate our history and take a look ahead at the future of our organization, our community and our profession.

The Boston Bar Association traces its roots back 250 years to 1761, when John Adams convened meetings of Boston attorneys at the Bunch of Grapes tavern in Beacon Hill to discuss the most pressing issues of the time. In the centuries since its founding, the Boston Bar Association continues to be a dynamic force working to keep pace with a changing city and an ever evolving profession.
